EFFECT OF PROTECTION UPON THE WAGE-EARNER

Statistics Show Vast Difference Between Wages in Protected and Unprotected Industries.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The annual wage of the average employe in the protected industries of the country is $468. The annual wage of the average employe in unprotected industries is $542. Industries receiving no benefits from a tariff pay their employe $74 more annually than those receiving protection!

This is the way Government statistics answer the contention of Republicans that high protection is a system devised to "protect" the wages of the American workingman.

The figures cited are based on statistics from the census of 1905, and taken from a table giving the "average number of wage earners and wages of employes in manufactures in the United States, grouped in conformity with the tariff of 1897; including articles classified under Section 6 and the free list."

Any school boy or girl, by referring to the table, may answer the argument of the protectionist. For instance, the table referred to shows there are 4,981,964 persons employed in industries the products of which are protected by tariff duties. The total wage of this army of working people is $2,331,938,518, annually. Divide the total wage by the number of employes and you have the average annual wage of the employe of the protected industry—$468.

The table shows there are 240,405 persons employed in industries in the United States the products of which are not protected by tariff duties. The annual payroll of these 240,405 persons is $130,400,880. Divide $130,400,880 by 240,405, and you have the annual wage of the average employe of the unprotected industries—$542.

An illustration of the extent to which high protection benefits the American laborer may be found by studying the industrial conditions of Pittsburgh. In Pittsburgh and suburbs are located the great plants of the steel trust. The steel industry is one of the most highly protected industries.

The prohibitory duties on steel and steel products have enabled the manufacturers of steel to make fabulous fortunes. If the wages and conditions of employes of an industry vary according to the amount of protection given its products, as claimed by the friends of protection, working men of Pittsburgh should live under ideal conditions.

How the highly-protected steel industry really protects "the American workingman" is set out in a striking manner in the April number of The World's Work. Every person interested in the subject should read this article, which is by Edwin Bjorkman. The statistics cited are up to the minute.

"The Carnegie Steel Company," says Bjorkman, "employs about twenty-three thousand workers within the district. Concerning the foreign-born among these, some very instructive statistics are available. They number in all 17,340, or three workers out of four in the whole force. Together, they represent more than twenty distinct nationalities, most of which in turn embrace from three to twenty racial or lingual subdivisions. Considering only the predominant elements, we find that these arrange themselves into two juxtaposed groups: On one side, fourteen thousand Austrians, Hungarians, Italians, and Russians, whom we may designate as Southerners; on the other side, three thousand two hundred from the British Islands, Germany, Sweden, and France, whom we may call Northerners. Among every hundred of the former, there are 82 unskilled, 15 semi-skilled, and only 3 skilled workers. Out of every hundred Northerners 32 are unskilled, 31 semi-skilled, and not less than 37 skilled. More than one-half of the Southerners do not speak English, while only three out of every hundred Northerners are thus handicapped. Two-thirds of the latter are naturalized, while one-tenth of the Southerners have acquired the rights of citizenship.

"Figures show that the Northerners are going out—as are the white natives of native parentage—and their places are being taken in constantly increasing degree by the Southerners. It is with these that the future of Pittsburgh seems to lie.

"Having worked fourteen and sixteen hours a day in their native countries, and having been paid from 25 to 50 cents for such slavery, the Southerners think little of working twelve hours a day and find a fortune in $2 thus earned. To the English-speaking people these men with unpronounceable names and strange ways are just 'Hunkies'—dumb, dull, driven brutes, so utterly beneath contempt that even competition with them is out of the question. Wherever they get in, the natives and the Northerners withdraw. Wherever the latter find conditions too hard or wages too low, the 'Hunkies' apply eagerly. Everywhere they have been kept at the bottom so far. The worst jobs, and only these, are for them. But still they are coming in ever greater numbers, and by slow degrees they are pushing upward—steadily, inevitably as fate itself. Amid the clatter of their unintelligible tongues, the few, and ever fewer, English-speaking foremen and skilled workers feel as lonesome as lighthouses. And this chasm between hostile castes of workers serves, by the way, to make unionism additionally impossible.

"There used to be big money for the workers who handled iron and steel. But for 15 years the cutting of wages has been going on, until today in many cases the best workers make less than half of what they used to earn. Every hundred workers in

MAY-DAY FESTIVAL WAS BIG SUCCESS

HANDSOME SUM REALIZED FOR THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

May-Pole Dance and Baby Show Distinctive Features and Attract Large Crowd.

The Baby Show and May Festival which was given Friday afternoon, on the Seminary lawn, was a great success in every way, and a large sum—about $80—was made for the Library.

The May-pole dance was a special feature of entertainment, in which twelve little girls participated. These were voted on, in the evening, and little Miss Marie DePass was elected Queen of the May Festival by a large majority. She is the lovely eight-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. DePass.

Little Miss Martha Lee McKinstry, age three months, the beautiful daughter of Mrs. Robert McKinstry, was awarded the prize, a little silver spoon, for being the prettiest and most popular young lady in Gainesville. Miss Margaret Wade Ledbetter, age 19 months, was a very close second, and was awarded first prize for the prettiest decorated carriage. This little brunette beauty was dressed very becomingly in a Japanese kimono, with Japanese parasol over her, and her carriage was decorated in red chrysanthemums and poppies to carry out the color scheme. The prize was a handsome little rocking chair.

The young man under two years who received first honors, was Master J. Maxey Dell, who has long since been recognized as one of the handsomest boys in Florida. The prize was two gold pins.

In the other contest—the children between two and four years of age—the girl's prize fell to beautiful little Mary Kincaid, and the boy's prize, a pretty silver cup, was awarded Master Joseph Waugh, who never looked handsomer, with his lovely brown curls and beautiful eyes.

There were about fifty babies in the baby show, and all were lovely little darlings, and no doubt all should have had prizes. Special mention should be given to Masters Fenton Prewitt, Duke Truby, James McClamrock, Burkett Jordan, and Misses Dorothy McMeekin, Eddie Sue and Lucile Colson, Julia Edwards, Esther Jordan, Louise Mason and Margaret Layton. All these were in the class ages two to four years.

In the smaller babies' class, special mention should be given the handsome son of Mrs. F. T. McCormick, Master Ralford, the lovely little daughters of Mrs. Long and Mrs. Leighton, also Miss Margaret White, Baby Williamson, Master Julian Broome, Olin LeGrande, Richard Weaver, and others.

Delicious lemonade was served by Mrs. Jack Denby, and ice cream and cake was also served, which added greatly to the enjoyment of the afternoon.

The watch advertised as lost by Mrs. S. A. Ledbetter on the above occasion, has been found and returned to the owner. "It pays to advertise!"

the steel mills and blast furnaces includes 60 men who make less than $2 a day, and only 2 who make more than $5 in the same time. Everybody works long hours in Pittsburgh. The eight-hour day is practically unknown. Among 16,000 men employed in the three largest plants of the United States Steel Corporation, there were 120 men working only eight hours a day. The twelve-hour day is practically law now among the steel and iron workers."

Want advertising is a force which you can harness, and with which you can drive your plans and purposes to any desired destination.

PEOPLE PREVENT PROGRESS OF GEORGIA TRAIN

Negro Fireman Was Apparently Cause of Trouble.
Federal or State Intervention Possible.

ATLANTA, May 29.—The first violence to railroad property in the Georgia firemen's strike occurred last night to a moving freight at Lithonia, Ga., and the race situation in consequence loomed more sharply than ever over the situation.

A negro fireman was apparently the cause of the trouble and he was rushed to Atlanta in an engine to save him from what his engineer, at least, believed was a threatening situation. The trouble started in the throwing of one or two stones and the boarding of the freight by men who set the brakes and broke it into three sections.

To such a pitch was public excitement stirred up by the affair that official sources gave the most conflicting versions of it. The railroad officers declared that it was the work of strike sympathizers, while a county official wired the Governor's office that it was merely an accident.

The engine left here late in the afternoon for Lithonia under an arrangement between Sheriff Morris of Dekalb county and the railroad officials, to bring a train load of perishable provisions from the siding at Lithonia into Atlanta. Assurances have been given the railroad for several days that in the interest of local shippers whole valuable cars were tied up and suffering loss by the strike no demonstration would be made against hauling these cars to Atlanta. When, however, the engine from Atlanta pulled into Lithonia about dusk, it was seen to carry a negro fireman, as did the mail trains which passed Lithonia earlier in the day, exciting very unfavorable comments.

About two hundred people gathered at the station. The engine was coupled to the cars, when the railroad officials say, just as the train was getting under way, a stone flew into the cab window and hit Engineer Downing. Next, say the officials, several men boarded the cars, setting brakes, cutting off the air, causing the last car to break loose from the train and finally uncoupling the engine, leaving its load stalled. According to the railroad's statement, their men saw no attempt by local authorities to interfere with the attack on the train.

Scott Makes Charges.

The report telephoned to State officials here said merely that there was no violence, that the train had run a short distance out of Lithonia when it stalled and the engine continued on its run to Atlanta. After the train had stopped, said this report, a small sized crowd of men swarmed upon the freight cars.

Just before the engine left Atlanta yesterday afternoon, General Manager Scott gave out the following statement:

"By arrangement with Sheriff Morris of Dekalb county we have arranged to send to Lithonia for a number of cars of freight, including much perishable, to bring them back to Atlanta and forward from here to destinations in different parts of this

Senate Had Busy Session; Many Measures Passed

TALLAHASSEE, May 29.—With the passage of the Cone State uniformity of text-books bill, the Williams oyster bill and nineteen other measures and the killing of three, the Senate put in a busy day yesterday.

In the morning an effort to reconsider the vote by which the Governor's veto of the Johnson insurance bill was sustained, failed. A constitutional point was raised relative to such a reconsideration and was sustained.

The Senate spent a busy day and little time was taken up with debate, the most of the day being devoted to a hard grind.

When Senate Bill No. 390, by Mr. Cone providing for State uniformity of school text-books came up, Senator McCreary opposed the measure and presented telegrams from noted Southern educators against such a plan.

Senator Cone spoke for the bill for a few minutes.

The bill was passed 17 to 9.

Among the bills taken up on third reading were the following:

Senate Bill No. 167, by Humphries—Prohibiting sale, gift or disposal of liquor on Sunday. Lost 19 to 2. The bill was intended to strengthen present laws, but was killed by amendments while on second reading.

Senate Bill No. 174—Relating to la-

Governor's Special Message on Abraham Lincoln

TALLAHASSEE, May 29.—Governor Gilchrist has sent the following special message to the Legislature:

"Gentlemen of the Legislature—My attention has been invited to that part of my biennial message in which I refer to George Washington, Robert E. Lee and Abraham Lincoln as the three greatest men which have been produced by our great nation.

"It is difficult for any one to decide who are these three men. My statement would have been more correct had I said that among these may be mentioned George Washington, Robert E. Lee and Abraham Lincoln.

"As the anniversaries of the birthday of Washington and Lee have, by legislative enactment, been made holidays, I still would recommend that the anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln be made a holiday.

"I have the honor to be "Very respectfully,

"ALBERT W. GILCHRIST, Governor."

Bill for Relief of Public Schools Passes Legislature

TALLAHASSEE, May 29.—One of the most important matters disposed of by the House yesterday was the passage of the Leggett bill appropriating $166,700 for the relief of public schools affected by the Supreme Court decision of last fall. The bill has already passed the Senate and now goes to the Governor for his signature.

Much of the afternoon was taken up with the discussion of the Farris child labor bill, which went to third reading, and the bill making an appropriation for the State Reform school at Marianna.

The sermon will be preached at the First Baptist church this morning by Rev. Dr. John E. Barnard of Cartersville, Ga., assisted by Rev. S. B. Rogers. Dr. Barnard is a most influential speaker, and his sermon, being prepared especially for this occasion, will doubtless prove very interesting.

Geo. W. Davenport has been selected as bugler for the procession, which will form as above stated. The graves of all the departed veterans of both the Blue and the Gray will be decorated with flowers. In addition to the usual ritualistic service on this occasion, there will be an address delivered by the talented young lawyer, Col. W. E. Baker, the reading of President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and special music by selected singers under the leadership of Col. I. E. Webster.

Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square at 9 o'clock for any Confederate Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy and any others who desire to attend the ceremonies and hear the address of Col. Baker. Those fortunate enough to have flowers are requested to make a donation for the decoration of the soldiers' graves.

CHECK YOUR FAT

Hold it where it is, or take off some. You can do either without disturbing your meals or your ease or your digestive organs. You can do it without physical risk, mental effort or danger of a wrinkle. "Sounds well, but these are words only," you say. True, but there is a nation full of indorsers of these words, so your protest, while natural, is feeble. Prove it. Write to the Marmola Company, Dept. 284, Detroit, Mich., inclosing 75 cents, or, better still, take that amount over to your druggist and get one of the extra large cases of Marmola Prescription Tablets. You will find it generously filled. Take one after meals and at bedtime, and within thirty days you should be losing a pound of fat a day, without disturbance, as we said, of either your meals, habits or organs. Fact is, these statements are not to be denied, for the tablets are an exact duplicate of the famous fat-reducing Marmola Prescription: One-half ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3 1/2 ounces Peppermint Water, which any druggist will tell you is the World's Fair medal winner in its class.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

A Tonic or a Stimulant?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this. Trust him fully, and always do as he says.

BALL BOYS ARE NOW PRACTICING DAILY

CAPTAIN SANDY GRAHAM PUTTING THE BOYS THROUGH.

Will Have Another Big Practice of all Men Here on Monday Afternoon. at the Ball Park.

Captain "Pat" Graham has been out three days during the past week with his baseball timber getting them warmed up and in good working order.

His next big practice will come off at the ball lot on Monday afternoon and he wants all of the players to come out and take a hand in the exercise, for it will not only do them good, but will put life into the work of the regular team that will be used during the coming season.

Only a short while now remains before the boys will commence meeting the teams of other parts of Florida, and the fact that they are already playing match games shows that we are a little late, but Manager Davis says we will "be there" good when we do announce ready. He states that he has already made a selection of the team to be used the coming season, but as his correspondence has been heavy with very desirable men, he may be induced to "take on" some of them when the contests really warm up and something gets "to doing."

Ocala and Orlando have already gone to work, also Palatka, but he is of the opinion that our first game will not occur before about the 15th of June, unless it be some minor games with small places.

The school was made happy by the presence of the entire board of visitors, appointed by the Diocesan Council, and the many patrons, who expressed pleasure at the advancement of the pupils, and the latter were especially delighted when the Bishop complimented them on their distinct speaking, and correct pronunciation of English.

Three medals, three birthday rings and many beautiful books were awarded to those pupils coming up to the standard required by the school. These were presented by Bishop Weed in his own happy way, and his words were, to the recipients, as pleasing as the gifts.

Following are the names of the students receiving prizes: Juanita Davis, gold medal; Irene Long, gold medal; Emily Davis, gold medal.

Birthday rings were awarded to Mary Cannon, Kate Clayatt and Kate Daughtry.

GETTING READY FOR STATE ENCAMPMENT

CAPTAIN BLANDING NOW DRILLING HIS MEN FOR TRIP.

Will Endeavor to Maintain the High Standard Made by the Boys on Former Occasions.

Capt. J. W. Blanding of the Gainesville Guards is now working his men preparatory for the annual State encampment, which will be held in June, commencing about the 10th.

Notwithstanding the warm nights, he has his men out regularly for practice and the coming week he anticipates having a number of extra meetings to better prepare them for the work they will have to perform. Capt. Blanding wants to take an extra strong aggregation to this encampment and believes that he will be successful.

Besides the large number of men that will go from Gainesville, there will be equally as many from Micapony, which will give the company the full number allowed for this event.

Gainesville has always manifested great pride in her military boys and she has always been well repaid by the manner in which they have advertised the city and carried honors that would have gone elsewhere, and the organization still deserves high credit, as the men are well-drilled and will hold their own in any contest they may enter with the State troops.

Talk for the Guards and thus assist a worthy organization who are sacrificing a great deal of time for the good of the city.

A few weeks more and the Georgia Legislature will be doing business again.

The best "trust buster" is the farmer who produces ample food stuffs for home consumption and cotton as a surplus or money crop.

The prosperous West teaches, or should teach, the Southern farmer that it is more profitable to raise food stuffs to sell than it is to buy them.

One way to promote health is for every householder to appoint himself or herself an inspector and then give the premises a thorough inspection, closely followed by a thorough cleaning.

The emptier the vessel the more does it sound and resound, and it is much the same in human life. It is the man devoid of common sense and understanding that makes the most noise.

The railroads entering Gainesville do a large amount of business at this point and in consequence are under obligations to the people to provide ample and comfortable passenger and freight accommodations.

Some people suffer more from imaginary troubles than real ones. They always worry about the future and conjure up difficulties that do not exist. Because of this their life is robbed of more than half its joy and blessing.

The farmer whose corn cribs are filled from his own fields and in whose smoke-house hangs a supply of home-raised bacon, may snap his finger in the face of the Northern speculator and sell or hold his cotton as he pleases.

The hotter the weather the more evident it becomes that Gainesville needs a recreation park—a place where the can't-get-away man or woman may find an inviting seat under the shade of trees and shrubbery to enjoy an hour's leisure occasionally.

It is only a dreamer who expects that the wealth of a nation will be or can be so distributed that everyone will have an equal share. But it is a wise man and no dreamer who aims to do away with conditions that favor special interests and which in so doing work injustice to the people.

History records many imperishable names, but with some it is the imperishableness of infamy and not of honor. Not one of us may attain such distinction as to be continually remembered, but to a greater or less extent we shall exist in the memory of others. This life should be so lived that when we pass away people may remember us only for our goodness.

The half-holiday plan is now being used all over the country, especially among the dry goods and clothing dealers. Thursday is the day more generally designated. It is a laudable movement and works to the benefit of the grantee since it allows the employee a chance to rest a few hours and be in condition to render his employer better service during the best day in the week for the average merchant—Saturday.

COUNTRY'S WOODED AREA.

There is at present an unfortunate lack of authoritative, scientific information in regard to the reproduction, either natural or artificial, of American forests, of their growth, and of the best time and methods of cutting them. The recent $100,000 endowment of the Morris K. Jesup Chair of Silviculture at the Yale Forest School will render possible the collection of much data on these subjects and its widespread dissemination.

The United States has been so richly endowed with natural resources that the thought of conserving our woods has come late. We have been unavoidably ignorant and therefore excusable. By a careful comparison made within the last two years of all the wooded area of the country, it has been learned that our total stand of timber is now between 1,500 and 2,000 billion feet. In a score of years consumption has been doubling on population, and lumber prices have shot up. In President Madison's day the States east of the Mississippi comprised over 1,000,000 forested square miles, or 700,000,000 acres. Today there are not over 300,000 square miles, or 119,000,000 acres of merchantable forest left in this section. At present about twenty-one per cent of our lands is devoted to agriculture; a half century hence it will probably be fifty per cent. We had 112,000,000 acres in farms in Lincoln's day; we have 415,000,000 today. For each citizen there is required one full acre of forest land, if, in the coming years, the United States is to be self-sustaining as regards its timber supply. At present, each citizen has seven and three-fourths acres to draw from, but in truth he is actually drawing from an accumulated surplus of sixteen acres per inhabitant. At this rate, we face a timber famine in a comparatively few years.

Our National forests form only about one-fifth of our wooded lands, four-fifths being private forests. It is essential, therefore, to have the general principles of forestry understood and practiced. This endowment will help materially toward actual conservation of our wooded areas and reforestation of those already laid waste.

The notorious Moulin Rouge in Paris has been losing money for its owners for some time past and they have at last been forced into bankruptcy. As a resort for fast people and those who wished to see the doings of the fashionable underworld of Paris the Moulin Rouge has been responsible for many a tragedy and the wrecking of any number of lives. In its heyday of popularity it made the fortune of several owners, but in recent years owing to the activity of purty crusaders and an improved moral tone among the people its popularity greatly decreased and it became a losing concern. From all of which it is seen that moral reform makes headway, even in the French capital.

Fancy Georgia and Florida Sea Island cotton was quoted in the Savannah market on Friday at from 21 to 22 cents. Crop accounts continue favorable from the Southwest Georgia counties, but in the eastern counties the crop is backward and small. In Florida the crop appears to be doing well.

A quaint writer advised every person to "burn his own smoke," by which he meant that one should not trouble others with his doubts and fears. Certainly life would be far more delightful if people abstained from unnecessary recital of their ills and woes.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

Miami Metropolis: "The late Henry H. Rogers, Standard Oil magnate, is responsible for the wonderful education and brilliancy of Helen Keller, the deaf, dumb and blind young woman whose progress has been marvelous the world over. It was not known generally that Mr. Rogers was shaping Miss Keller's destiny, until after his death."

Clay County Times: "The Polk County Record nominates Attorney-General Park M. Trammell for Governor. For mercy's sake give us a rest. We've just elected a Governor and haven't even started to 'cuss' him yet. Let us get our money's worth out of one before we begin to talk about another. While we have no particular objection to Mr. Trammell we think the launching of a gubernatorial boom at this time decidedly premature."

Punta Gorda Herald: "A great sensation was caused at Tallahassee and throughout the State last week, when a legislative committee read a list of prominent citizens who, years ago, had been riding on railroad free passes. It was given out that the publication of the list would mean the political death-knell of all whose names were in it. As none of those named in the list have been using railway free passes since they were prohibited by law, we fail to see why any of them should be politically executed for the alleged offence."

Ft. Meade Observer: "Several weeks ago a merchant in Leroy, Mich., sent a dun to a former customer, with the remark: 'This is the third dun I have sent you, none of the former you have answered. If you don't answer this one, I'll hand your name to the secretary of the merchants' protective association, who will put it on the black list, and what that means you will soon learn.' The man who had suffered some reverses of late, showed the missive to his lawyer who told him to sue the merchant for libel, which he did and compelled the merchant to pay him $1,000 damages for defamation of character. How is that for justice?"

Tremendous Gains Made by Candidates in the Great Co-Operative Contest.

Tremendous gains all along the line was the result of the official count in the great Co-Operative Contest Saturday.

Miss Addie Goode leads Miss Evans by over 22,000, and by far the largest vote ever polled in the present contest was recorded, many candidates receiving very large numbers.

The Sun has made arrangements and will publish the photographs of all candidates that send in as many as a club of ten subscribers to the semi-weekly edition, or its equivalent to the daily, and as a number are already entitled to this, we are glad to announce that their photographs will be printed within the next few days. In this way, the people will have some idea as to who they are casting their votes for and it will be a good vote-getter for the many young ladies now in the race.

Remember, that by special arrangement with the A. R. Harper Piano Company, all contestants will get a certificate good for $25 on any instrument handled by them, besides there will be fifteen certificates issued good for $100 that will be given the first five young ladies following the leader in the three sections.

Get busy and get to work, for you are sure of receiving something for your services and at the same time it will prove interesting for the others that are in the race.

PEOPLE PREVENT PROGRESS GEORGIA TRAIN

State and other States by other lines. Sheriff Morris guaranteed full protection to employes and property.

The Story of Violence.

"As an instance of lawlessness, it is proper to mention that the air brake hose on several of the cars have been cut, while they were detained at Lithonia.

"Application through our agent at Thomson to the sheriff of McDuffie county for protection to our employes and trains has brought the following response:

"Sheriff says he is powerless to give protection to passenger trains. Impossible to get deputies who are not strike sympathizers. He has made repeated efforts to get up posses and does all in his power. Cannot get municipal authorities to take any action."

"Here again is an example of the complete failure of State, county and municipal authorities to protect employes and property, as required by law, which in the present condition is essential to the resumption of train service.

"If State, county and municipal authorities will exercise their power for the protection of employes and property the Georgia Railroad will have no difficulty in completely restoring trains of all kinds.

(Signed) "THOMAS K. SCOTT, General Manager."

Yesterday brought forth almost simultaneously the possibilities of speedy State or Federal intervention, believed by many persons of wide acquaintance with local conditions to be heavy with danger of race trouble. It is admitted that either Federal or State authorities can run the trains and preserve armed order, but if the railroad insists on its rights to negro firemen, it is feared that racial enmity and reprisal on negroes will be stirred up in regions remote from the railroad tracks. It is pointed out that not until the lynching of a negro at Lincolnton, Ga., shortly after the strike began had there previously been a deliberate lynching in Georgia for nearly two years. Negroes have met violent deaths since that time, but they were killed while resisting capture.

Mrs. Eliz. Ratherree, 201 W. McCormick street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "For years I suffered from dragging pains in my back, often so severely that I could not move. ### GETS ANOTHER BUILDING.

Now Has Four Government Contracts Including That of Gainesville.

W. W. King, president of the King Lumber Company of Charlottesville, Va., received the pleasing information yesterday by wire that they had been awarded another Government contract at Lake Charles, La., which will be a building costing $135,000.

This makes four contracts the company is now handling for the U. S. Government, and during the past year they have completed about the same number. In all they now have something like twelve contracts of large buildings ranging from $100,000 up.

While waiting for his superintendent, Mr. King has made himself extremely busy and assumed the position of superintendent of the contract here himself, with the result that he has finished a large part of the concrete work on the building.

A New Version of It.

Robert, the small son of Mr. Bray, has lately acquired a stepmother. Hoping to win his affection, this new parent has been very lenient with him while his father, feeling his responsibility, has been unusually strict. The boys of the neighborhood, who had taken pains to warn Robert of the terrible character of stepmothers in general, recently waited on him in a body and the following conversation was overheard:

"How do you like your stepmother, Bob?"

"Like her! Why, fellows, I just love her. All I wish is I had a stepfather too."—Woman's Home Companion.

BROWNING'S "SORDELLO."

The Critics Had Lots of Fun With the Famous Poem.

When Robert Browning was twenty-eight years old and after he had written "Paracelsus" and his tragedy of "Strafford," he wrote "Sordello," about which there has always been such a variety of opinion. Dante in his "Purgatory" wrote of Sordello, who was a poet of Provence.

"When 'Sordello' appeared it made a sensation. Punch said it had offered £100 to any person who would reasonably explain one single line and that after a year no one had claimed this reward. Burlesques were written on it, and in one of these it was claimed that the funniest lines were some of the exact original ones.

A story is told of witty Douglas Jerrold, who met a friend one day and asked, "Have you read 'Sordello'?" Does it mean anything?"

The friend replied that it meant nothing whatever. "Thank heaven!" said Jerrold. "Then I am not mad! I read it yesterday and feared I had lost my wits. It is only Browning who has lost his."

Another story was that criminals at Newgate prison who were condemned to death were offered full pardon if they would listen to the reading of "Sordello," but in every instance they hastened with glee to the gallows. Browning once said that he blamed nobody but himself for the work and that it had many faults of expression; that he meant to lay stress on incidents in the development of a soul and that little else is worth study. This estimate of his work was given twenty-five years after it was written, when he had revised it and dedicated it to a friend. He rewrote very little of it, and his followers have a belief that he considered "Sordello" his best literary work. It certainly has many beautiful lines, and in particular there is a word picture as striking as anything in our language:

That autumn eve was stilled.
A last remains of sunset dimly burned
O'er the far forests like a torch flame turned
By the wind back upon the bearer's hand
In one long flame of crimson; as a brand
The woods beneath lay black.

EVERYONE NEEDS S.S.S. IN THE SPRING

This is just a short talk which we hope will be of interest and help to you in selecting the tonic and blood purifier that will be of the greatest value to you this Spring.

That this is the most trying of all seasons on the health is a fact well known to us all. It is the time of year when our constitutions are required to stand the greatest strain, and unless properly cared for the foundation is often laid for physical disorders or disease later on. The great majority of persons are fast coming to realize the importance of preventing disease. Health is our most valued possession, and its preservation is a matter which vitally concerns every one.

Most persons, even those who are ordinarily strong and robust, feel the necessity of a tonic and blood purifier at this season. Some have no particular ailment, but are weak, debilitated and run-down. The Winter life, with its decreased amount of out-door exercise, and the fact that the cold weather has kept the pores of the skin closed, prevented the usual necessary amount of refuse and waste matter from being carried out of the system. These impurities entering the circulation have weakened and thinned the blood, and this vital fluid is therefore lacking in the nourishing properties necessary to sustain and preserve systemic health, when warm, active Spring life begins.

The general bodily weakness, tired, worn-out feeling, fickle appetite, poor digestion, etc., show how weak and anaemic the blood has become. Frequently skin diseases, pimples, eruptions, boils, etc., break out on the skin, and this is evidence of the impurity of the circulation.

S. S. S. is the medicine needed to correct this condition, and is the only one on which you can rely to supply the system with the best tonic effects, and at the same time thoroughly purify the blood. The use of S. S. S. at this time may save you from a long spell of sickness, and it will certainly prepare you for the strain of the long, hot Summer.

Many people have put off using a tonic until the system became so weakened it could not resist disease, and have paid for the neglect with a spell of fever, malaria, or some other trouble. S. S. S. is Nature's ideal tonic and blood purifier, made entirely of the pure extracts of healing, strengthening, health-giving roots and herbs. It tones up the stomach and digestion, rids one of that tired, worn-out feeling, improves the appetite and digestion, and in every way contributes to the strengthening and building up of the entire system. S. S. S. is recognized everywhere as the greatest of all blood purifiers, and this combined with its unequalled tonic properties, make it a medicine needed by every one in the Spring.

S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.
